Transforming Care for Adults with Learning Disabilities and/or Autism

10 August 2018 to 5pm on 28 September 2018

Consultation extended to 5pm on Friday 12 October 2018

This consultation is about plans to pay for specialist hospital beds for people who have learning disability or autism. This change is needed so that we can make services in your community better so patients get care and support closer to their homes.

It is also about how we support people with learning disabilities and autism out of hospital.

What we plan to do

Option 1: Stay the same

Option 2: Use one hospital in Peterborough/Cambridgeshire

Option 3: No hospital beds – all community support

Enhanced community support

Option 4 – The Preferred Option: Less hospital beds and better community support
